

About Jay.

award-winning artist specializing in magic, mentalism and comedy. He has entertained crowds of all sizes and performed magic in the UK & Abroad. Since getting hooked reading a magic book at the age of 8, Jay has devoted countless hours to mastering sleight-of-hand magic, & Mentalism. This passion is what has helped him craft a unique performance style.

His connection to the audience, using magic and mentalism, is specifically designed to provide audiences with an astonishing, clever, and extremely impressive memory of an event for years to follow.

Wedding Magician.

Jay Adkins, professional wedding entertainer, permanently in demand with his unique style of magic. Combining close-up magic together with mentalism and comedy, Jay brings a fresh lively genre of magic and entertainment with lots of fun, laughter and excitement. Using sleight of hand and memory feats that will shock, amaze and bring smiles to your guests initiating conversation amongst them long after he has gone.

Jay's style of comedy magic and mind-reading enables him to have fun whilst mixing & mingling with your guests during the drinks reception, when the photos are being taken and at the tables between courses as well as a full stand up cabaret show.

His magic brings guests together, drawing everyone into a magical experience through audience participation and interaction. He then leaves them with smiles and laughter plus an experience which will open up conversation between guests when he has left.

Most importantly, fun memories of your event which will talk about for years to come.
